"Coming off a year of many changes and improvements, we look to continue to build the program towards conference contention once more. With Ben Carmosino and Ryan Bollhauer entering their final season, plus the integration of this new young core, it'll be interesting to see where we end up by the end of the 2025 season." - Coach Santiago-Garcia

IH COMMENTS:

MSJ returns a very high amount of returning statistics from 2024. Almost all categories are at the 75% or higher. The Lions have a nice core of new recruits hitting the floor for 2025. The big loss to graduation is Logan Essen the talented back row digger who handled a high amount of serve receive as part of his defensive role. On the attack, Ryan Bollhauer, the 6'7" MH enters his senior year as does setter Ben Carmosino. Ben did it all last year putting up 526 assists, 138 digs, 28 blocks, and 49 kills. Ryan was outstanding posting a .370 hitting percentage for the Lions who finished at 6-15. The new recruits will need to inject some energy and talent for this season for MSJ to compete for conference honors. Overall hit% for this squad from last season was at .145. This is an area that they can improve on to be competitive.
