COACH LEANDRO COMMENTS:

With the continued growth of the game, the creation of new conferences, and the addition of new teams like ourselves across the D3 landscape, it might be easy for teams to look past us already before the season starts. With a relatively young team that has lots of talent on our roster at each position, I feel we are poised to challenge plenty of teams this year and make a statement in the ODAC. Our inaugural team will be led by our outside hitters, Mats Beentjes and Elijah Woods, who are also our team captains. Along with those two, Shamel Smith is someone to keep an eye on. He will be one of our opposites and looks poised to have a great year. These three, along with the 13 other talented players on our team are looking forward to helping lead and create the first chapter of ODAC and Randolph College Men's Volleyball.

COMMENTS:
The Wildcats join together for their innagural season for 2025. Jordan Leandro takes the reign of this new program as Head Coach. Jordan played club volleyball at Grove City College and has a degree in mathematics from that school. His team was ranked 5th nationally in the country for the club level. Jordan will be assisted by Alec Boesel and Colton Fox. The Wildcats take on a very ambitious schedule in their first year and will face Wittenberg, Loras, Messiah, and Eastern in non-conference matches as well as contend with Eastern Mennonite, Randolph-Macon, and Roanoke in league play. With a host of club players on the roster, it will be a great season start for this new program.
