COMMENTS:

Pat Wing's departure will be felt by this program as he was one of the top pin hitters in D3 over the past few years. Much of the weight will shift to Chris Larkin who is in his fifth year for the Hawks. Larkin and Hofer have handled a large percentage of serve receive, which is one of the teams strengths. Matt Muruzca returns at setter but the team will certainly miss AJ Fitzgerald, a very strong defensive player that graduated. With an overall average hitting percentage for returning players at .253, the team will need to improve this metric to stay near the top of the UVC. Junior Krish Jain could break out as well at middle. He is a strong player and has the potential to dominate. With the continued excellence exhibited by the UVC conference teams, it may be hard for SUNY New Paltz to stay close to the top in 2025. Vassar, NYU, Hobart, MIT, Nazareth and SJF are all ranked higher than New Paltz who may not have enough firepower to stay with these elite and rising teams. It's an unfamiliar place for New Paltz who has had consistent success under Coach Petrus.
