COMMENTS:

In 2024, SVU was far and away the best team statistically in the nation. The loss at the end of their season to NYU in the NCAA playoffs was a surprise as they fell in five sets despite outscoring the Violets for the match. They lost three sets to NYU and had lost just three sets in total all season to that point, one to Juniata, and two to Rutgers. The team loses an amazing setter in Tyler Sheaffer to graduation and will not have the services of 6' 7" middle Quin Shumway until next season. The setter position has three strong players vying for a starting role and it appears 6' 2" transfer from Concordia Irvine Gherig Tolman may have the inside track. We expect the chemistry to continue to be strong with OH Christian Sheaffer leading the offensive charge as a senior. Christian hit just under .400 in 2024 at outside and had a receive percentage of .971. The Knights have nine seniors on this squad and we expect them to finally cash in on an NCAA tournament victory. Let's talk about some of the other assets on this team. Jeremy Brown is also a senior and is just a standout player fundamentally. His versatility and positive attitude is contagious and he is just a fireball of energy. Justin Madsen is one of the best libero's in the CVC as well as in the country. A player to watch this season is RS Sam Candland. Sam leaves no doubt on his attacks and is one of the hardest hitters in the country. Kristo Bianchin, Curtis Stone, and Kyler Evans will all play a part on the attack and block. 7 new recruits will add depth and competition. Undefeated season? We think YES!
