COMMENTS:

The Raptors are coming off a 9-19 season and lose a really solid player to graduation in Angel Obergh. Bard also loses other key players from last years squad with 6' 7" Quincy Ross graduating and Ben Ross not returning. But the team adds 7 key freshman and have high hopes for this recruitment class. With four new players with strong club experience, the Raptors could take off and fly this season. Without a senior on the roster, it's more likely that the major move forward may come next season but we do expect Bard to make a major step forward. The team does lack one or two big men on the net and they will need to make considerable improvement in their hitting percentage to keep moving forward as well as their receive percentage which is among the worst in the country.
