Juniata should be in great shape this season despite losing their starting setter Reese Ganter to graduation. They return almost all of their starters and have added another 8 new freshman to a stellar group of standout athletes. Middle Blocker Luke Hoffman is one of the best in the country. He tallied 190 kills, 97 total blocks, and had a hit percentage of .425 last season. Pin Hitter Tyler Goldsborough was equally as impressive with 379 kills, a .330 hit percentage and a .956 receive percentage. Junior Tyler Phillips had 237 kills, 53 blocks and over 100 digs in 24. MB Chris Mellor had an outstanding freshman season where he slammed 117 kills, had 47 blocks and hit % over .400. Libero Jeremiah Burden starts his senior year after posting a .968 receive %. Other players to watch include 6'7" Nathanael Brown, senior Juan Armando, and Campbell Gerdeman. Now with Ganter gone, the Eagles will look to either 6'7" senior and Grant Lorelli to take the reigns as playmaker or sophomore Will Sierer, both of which performed admirably as reserves in 2024. We expect a quick start for Juniata who has a less competitive schedule early in the season and then leads more competitive non-conference matchups around their CVC schedule. Lots of talent, lots of depth, and hopefully lots of wins for Juniata in 2025.
